Adult/Teen Workshop - Threads of Community Weaving with Ebru Winegard

Date and Time: Saturday, September 27 3:00 pm - 3:50 pm

At the Caledon Creative Arts Festival, join us for a hands on workshop.

Workshops are first-come, first-serve. Registration for the workshop in-person, opens one hour before workshop begins.

This welcoming workshop invites participants of all backgrounds and skill levels to explore the ancient art of weaving, inspired by the rich tapestry of cultures and the beauty of our local environment.

In this hands-on session, participants will receive guidance on weaving techniques and use provided materials to create their own small tapestry. After a brief introduction, they can choose their materials and work at their own pace. A variety of loom sizes, animal-shaped frames, and other materials encourage creativity and self-expression.

The workshop prioritizes sustainability by using natural fibres sourced from eco-friendly, local suppliers whenever possible. By working with biodegradable and responsibly produced materials, participants engage not only in artistic creation but also in environmental awareness.

All materials—including looms, tools, needles, and supplies—are provided. Participants will leave with their completed pieces to take home.

Adult/Teen Workshop - Foraged Ink Painting with Fabienne Good

Date and Time: Saturday, September 27 4:00 pm - 4:50 pm

Address: 6215 Old Church Road Caledon East, ON - Soccer Field Behind Caledon East Community Complex

At the Caledon Creative Arts Festival, join us for a hands on workshop.

Workshops are first-come, first-serve. Registration for the workshop in-person, opens one hour before workshop begins.

Dufferin Foraged Inks facilitates hands-on workshops where participants learn how plants, nuts and berries from our local environment can be harvested and turned into ink. Participants can explore these special inks while creating unique art work - similar to watercolour painting. The goal is to offer a creative environment where participants can reflect, reset and learn how nature can be both a source of expression and a tool for stress-relief. Participants are encouraged to slow down, observe closely and reconnect with the natural world. This workshop is not only about making art - but also about discovering that beauty and inspiration exist all around us, often in overlooked places. By tuning into seasonal shifts and everyday plants, participants will hopefully leave with new perspectives - as well as ideas for how they could pursue this type of mindfulness activity in their own spare time. No previous experience is necessary.

Adult/Teen Workshop - Cyanotype Printing with Jo Thompson

Address: 6215 Old Church Road Caledon East, ON - Soccer Field Behind Caledon East Community Complex

Workshops are first-come, first-serve. Registration for workshop in-person, opens one hour before workshop begins.

Scratchboard - Art From Scratch!

Scratchboard is a fun and easy to use medium, where specially prepared papers or clay boards are covered with black ink. Using a scraping tool (wooden, plastic, sandpaper, steel wool or craft knives) you scratch away the black ink to reveal the colours beneath.

Scratchboard can be a fun and easy way for artists of any age to create bold and graphic - or highly detailed pieces.

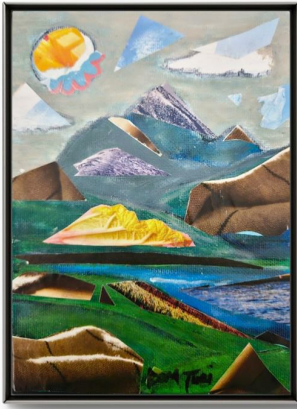

I will bring samples of detailed scratchboard works, and have lots of different scratchpapers, boards, and different tools for you to safely try

Come scratch!

Adult/Teen Workshop - Collage Painting with Domenic Tuzi

Date and Time: Saturday, September 27 5:00 pm - 5:50 pm

Address: 6215 Old Church Road Caledon East, ON - Soccer Field Behind Caledon East Community Complex

At the Caledon Creative Arts Festival, join us for a hands on workshop.

Workshops are first-come, first-serve. Registration for the workshop in-person, opens one hour before workshop begins.

This is a mixed media workshop where we explore creating art using various materials.

We will draw basic shapes in pencil, then paint them and the background in using acrylic paint.

Once the base painting is completed, we will cut out and glue on paper clippings from magazines to add interest, colour, texture and depth to the pieces creating something that is unique and always different.
