Learn How Credit Valley Conservation is Turning Two Former Pits into Parks

Date and Time: Thursday, April 18 4:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: Alton Legion 1267 Queen St. W Alton, ON, L7K 0C4

Credit Valley Conservation (CVC) is planning to ecologically restore two former aggregate sites in Caledon, Pinchin Pit and Flaherty West Pit, which is part of Charles Sauriol Conservation Area. Our goal is to transform these properties into future Credit Valley Parks.

In partnership with the Region of Peel, we're undertaking studies to determine the technical, environmental and social feasibility of importing clean excess soil to facilitate the enhanced ecological restoration of Pinchin Pit and Flaherty West Pit. The two sites will eventually be transformed into areas suitable for tree planting, development of grassland habitat and provide the community with nature-based recreation opportunities.

Drop-in anytime between 4:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m to meet CVC staff, learn about the project and provide your feedback.
