Septic Social Workshop

Date and Time: Saturday, October 5 9:00 am - 11:00 am

Address: Alton, Ontario

Get pumped about septic system health

A failing septic system is costly, inconvenient and even dangerous. Gather outdoors with Credit Valley Conservation's Karen Buckle to learn how to prevent septic system problems and protect groundwater quality.

We'll show you the process of a septic pump out and maintenance firsthand on a local property.

In this workshop you'll learn:

- How septic systems work
- Preventative steps to keep your system functioning properly
- Problem identification and troubleshooting
- How a poorly functioning septic system can lead to illness

Bring your septic system questions for the open Q&A following the demonstration.

You'll leave this workshop with the knowledge you need to keep your septic system healthy.

Additional Information

- Registration is required. Register for this event by October 3 at noon.
- Event will run rain or shine under a tent shelter. Please dress for the weather and bring a lawn chair.
- Light refreshments will be served at a safe smelling distance from the septic tank.

Bruce Trail Day

Date and Time: Sunday, October 6 9:00 am - 2:30 pm

Address: Akela and Scouters Heather and Ross Hamlin Nature Reserve - 713377 1st Line EHS, Mono

All are invited to a day of hiking and family activities next month.

On October 6, the Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club is celebrating Bruce Trail Day, which is celebrated on the first Sunday of October each year.

The club will be celebrating with a series of guided hikes and family activities at the Riverside Woods Nature Reserve (713377 1st Line EHS) in Mono. All activities and hikes are free.

At 9 a.m. there will be a “forest bathing” hike, a quiet hike that encourages people to absorb the restorative qualities of nature. Hikers will also learn about a historic home built in 1857 that is just steps off the Bruce Trail. This hike will be two hours long.

At 10 a.m. another two-hour hike will begin: a guided hike of the Goodyear Memorial, Rushing River, and Upland Side trails.

A shorter, one-hour hike out and back on the Upland Side Trail will depart at 10:15 a.m. and at 12:15 p.m. a one-hour nature walk will depart to study the biodiversity of the Riverside Woods property.

New this year to celebrate Bruce Trail Day will be two performances of the Birds of Prey Show from the Mountsberg Raptor Centre. They will happen at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. and be educational, interactive shows that kids and adults alike can enjoy.

At 9:30 a.m. and 1:45 p.m., family nature hunts will depart.

In addition to this packed schedule of activities, there will also be nature crafts and games for kids and many educational opportunities.
